re appointment of Mr. K. Raghavendra Rao as Private Secy to H.H. the Yuvaraja & the allowances sanctioned thereto

Noted

Serial No.

There is no Regulation under creating the appointment of Private Secretary to H.H. the Yuvaraja. Mr. K. Mylar Rao Asstt Comr., was appointed as Private Secy by a Notification which was Communicated to his Commission. On Mr. Mylar Rao's transfer in 1919, Mr. M. A. Srinivachar was appointed to act as Private Secy.

The post of Private Secy to H.H. the Yuvaraja is not included in the Cadre of Asstt Comrs. Therefore no Reduction in the Cadre seems necessary.

In this Connection it is stated that the post of Personal Asstt to H.H. the Yuvaraja, though now held by an Asstt Comr., is not included in the Cadre of Asstt Comrs.

Dear Sir,

As I submitted to you at Bangalore, His Highness though agreeable to the post of the Private Secretary - being abolished, did not approve of the wording of the - order. As you are aware, both the appointments of the Private Secretary and the Personal Assistant are not -- cadre appointments and the former automatically ceased on the transfer of Messrs. Mylar Rao and Singrachar and no provision is made in the budget towards their salaries separately. I am therefore directed to forward herewith a draft proceedings slightly modifying the wordings of the previous order, and to enquire whether this draft can be substituted for the other. I am to add that the revised order need not be placed on the press table.

Yours sincerely,
M. G. M...
